

TRY YOURSELF

ANSWERS

1. The full form of RCH is Reproductive and Child Health Care programme.
  2. Government of India initiated 'Family Planning Programme' in 1951.
  3. Birth rate is the rate of number of individuals being produced per 1000 individuals of a population per year.
  4. Malthus gave the theory of human population growth.
  5. A condom is a sheath, often made of latex rubber is used to cover the erect penis during intercourse to block the passage of sperm into female's uterus.
  6. The full form of IUD is intrauterine device.
  7. The medical termination of pregnancy (Amendment) Act, was enacted in 2017 by Government of India with intention of reducing the incidence of illegal abortion and consequent maternal mortality and morbidity.
  8. Second trimester abortions are more riskier as fetus becomes intimately associated with the maternal tissues.
  9. Herpes simplex virus causes genital herpes.
  10. The Neisseria gonorrhoeae bacterium lives in genital tubes, produces pus containing discharge, pain around genitalia and burning sensation during urination.
  11. GIFT : Gamete Intra Fallopian Transfer
ICSI : Intra Cytoplasmic Sperm Injection
  12. Artificial insemination (AI) technique is assisted reproductive technology used for infertility cases in which male partner is unable to inseminate the female or have very low sperm count in the semen.
-

